Meet Shelly, our 2017 #GivingTuesday Ambassador

Shelly the Turtle

This is Shelly, our #GivingTuesday ambassador. Already know about #GivingTuesday, adore Shelly, and just want to make a gift? Click here.

Back to Shelly. She loves her home in our brand new Science, Technology, Engineering, Applied Arts, and Mathematics (STEAM) Lab.

And #GivingTuesday- what is that? It's a nationwide day of giving (following Black Friday, Small Business Saturday, and Cyber Monday) that started 6 years ago to celebrate the charitable nature of the holiday season and serve as an official kickoff for the more than 30% of charitable gifts that are given in the month of December.

So why did we pick Shelly as our 2017 #GivingTuesday ambassador?

Well, she is awfully cute, beloved by our students, and most importantly, her new home in the STEAM Room is a perfect example of one of the many upgrades we were able to make this year thanks to the generosity of our community. She may be just one turtle, but she offers our students a window into the natural world, a chance to learn respect for living things, and most days, plain old fun!

By making a gift to the Annual Fund this #GivingTuesday, you're helping us make exciting additions like the STEAM Lab, send our faculty and staff to conferences so they can be the best educators possible to your children, offer tuition assistance that helps diversify our school community, and much more.

So this #GivingTuesday, give in honor of Shelly and all she represents.

Not motivated by adorably nosy turtles? Here's a few other examples of what your support can mean for SPS:

- $50
sends 5 new playground balls bouncing across Wiggins Field
- $100
adds 10 new books to our classroom libraries
- $250
buys new costumes for our 8th Grade Play
- $500
sends a teacher to a conference
- $1000
starts a new metal working program with Ms. Staple
- $5000
sends the entire 7th Grade on a field trip to New York City

What experiences will you give to our students this #GivingTuesday?
